

Microbiologists

- skills, knowledge and development

Training, continuing professional development and proficiency testing - on all aspects of food and drink microbiology

- Microbiology courses covering the topics that matter
- Bespoke courses - at your preferred time and place
- Seminars, conferences and briefings for professional development and networking
- Proficiency schemes to monitor laboratory performance
- Industry newcomers, technical team development, and refresher training