

Travel directions to Nutfield site

By road

Campden BRI is located 5 miles from the M25 motorway. Exit the M25 at Junction 6 (Godstone Interchange). Take the southbound A22 exit towards East Grinstead. Drive along a dual carriageway for approximately half a mile. At the end of the dual carriageway you will reach a roundabout. Take the third exit onto the A25, towards Redhill. At the mini roundabout take the first exit onto the A25. In Godstone, when the road branches, bear right to stay on the A25. Follow the A25 for 3.5 miles, passing through Bletchingley and over the M23 motorway. On entering Nutfield take the first left at the Crown Vets onto Coopers Hill Road (this is a narrow and windy road). Follow this road down for about 1/2 mile. Turning right into Campden BRI, the car park is located on the left and reception and goods inwards on the right.

Local taxi number: Road Runners +44(0)1737 760076

By train (Redhill station)

For queries on train times please call National Rail Enquiries 08457 484950 or visit www.nationalrail.co.uk.

There is a regular service from Gatwick airport to Redhill with trains departing about every 10 minutes. The journey will take about 8 -10 minutes

Trains run to Redhill from London Victoria, usually twice an hour. The journey will take about 30-40 minutes.

Trains to Redhill run from London Bridge approximately 3 times an hour. The journey will take about 30-40 minutes.

On arriving at Redhill station, pass through the ticket hall and turn right on leaving the glass fronted building. Here you will find a taxi queue where you will be able to hire a taxi to Campden BRI, which is approximately a 5-10 minutes ride away.

By air

Campden BRI is 20 minutes from London Gatwick. It is possible either to get the train to Redhill (Gatwick train station is located in the South Terminal) or hire a taxi from Gatwick to Campden BRI.

London Heathrow airport is approximately an hour away by car using the M25. Airport Shuttle Bus services run between Heathrow and Gatwick. It is also possible to use the underground into central London. Take the Piccadilly line to Green Park. This is a 50-60 minute journey. Change at Green Park onto the Victoria Line. Once at Victoria trains run to Redhill as mentioned above.

